Premium Payment

As the Insured, you are responsible for the payment of the Premiums.

The Premiums are payable monthly in advance.

If another person makes the Premium payments on your behalf, such person shall not become the Insured or have any right or entitlement to the benefits payable.

If a Premium is not paid on the specified payment date, Viva Cover will notify you by SMS.

If a Premium is not successfully collected, Viva Cover may attempt to debit your account:

- on an alternative date using:
 - o the bank's DebiCheck system; or
 - o a restrike, before your next Payment Date;
- and in the event of a successful debit your payment date may be amended accordingly, and we may keep debiting you on the same date in the future.

If a Premium is not paid on the due date, your account will be debited in the following month for 2 (two) months premiums.

If the Payment Date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday, we will collect the Premium on a more suitable business day.

If the Premium remains unpaid (after the double debit attempt) and the policyholder fails to remedy the failure within 30 (thirty) days (the Grace Period), the Policy will lapse at midnight on the last day of the preceding period of the Policy.

The Insurer adheres to the Policyholder Protection Rules by abiding by a 30-day grace period allowance. If no premium is received within the 30 days after the last premium was due, the policy will lapse, and any claims made in this period may be repudiated.

The Administrator is entitled to increase the Premiums payable in accordance with the terms of this Policy by providing 31 (thirty-one) days written notice to you prior to the implementation of the increase. Should you fail to pay such increased Premium, Viva Cover may adjust the benefits payable in terms of this Policy or may terminate this Policy with effect from the date of failure to pay the increased Premiums. The Premiums will increase annually by a minimum of 8% on the anniversary of the policy.

A full month's Premium is due in respect of any Insured Huawei Device where cover commences or ceases during a calendar month.

In the event of a claim for benefits, Viva Cover shall be entitled to deduct any Premiums due and not yet received from the claim payable, if this Policy is still in force. All Premiums are inclusive of Value Added Tax.
